

ACUPUNCTURE WELLNESS

Since 2003

Welcome.

To those of you who are new to acupuncture and to those who are returning, welcome, and best wishes to you on your journey to better health. I look forward to working with you.

For new patients, the initial office visit consists of a thorough health history, where we will review your health concerns and the issues that you would like to address. This will be followed by an acupuncture treatment. The first office visit takes 75-90 minutes. Follow-up appointments may last 50-60 minutes. Please be assured that anything that happens in treatment is strictly confidential.

- Prior to each visit, please make sure that you have eaten something within 2 hours of treatment — a light snack will do fine.
- Please wear or bring loose fitting clothing in order to easily access parts of the body during treatment. Draping is also provided to ensure comfort.
- The office is scent-free. Please refrain from wearing perfume, cologne, or other strongly-scented products on the day of your appointment.

Please contact us for any questions, we're happy to help.

If you are unable to keep an appointment, kindly give 24 hours notice, or you may be charged for the missed appointment. This does not apply to inclement weather or emergencies.

Health History Questionnaire

Please fill out this questionnaire carefully so that you can be provided with a complete evaluation. All of your answers will be held absolutely confidential. If you have questions, please ask. If there is anything you wish to mention which is not asked on this form, please note it in the "Comments" section. Thank you.

Consent to Treatment

I, _____, hereby authorize Serra May Plourde, Lic. Ac. to administer any style of Oriental Medicine relevant to my diagnosis and treatment, including but not limited to the following:

- 1. Needle Insertion - This technique involves insertion of various styles and sizes of sterile, disposable needles into the body at various depths and locations. On rare occasion, slight bruising may occur upon the removal of a needle.
- 2. Heat treatments - This refers to either moxabustion or a conventional heat lamp, both of which are used to promote circulation. Moxabustion or mugwort (Arthemisa vulgaris) is an herb that is used by either a) applying it to the top of the needle (referred to as indirect moxa), b) holding a moxa pole above the skin (also an indirect application), or c) applying it directly on the skin with salve that serves as a barrier to protect the skin. The heat lamp emits a continuous warming effect that is placed over various areas of the body. The heat generated from the moxabustion may involve slight discomfort or leave a blister or scar on the skin. With any type of heat, there is always a risk of a burn.
- 3. Cupping - This is a type of deep massage that uses glass or plastic cups placed, using suction, on muscular areas that have pain or tension. The cups are either left stationary or slid with massage oil back and forth to cover larger areas of need. This technique may temporarily leave a red or purple mark in the area treated that can last for 1-5 days. This is a normal response to the technique.
- 4. Gwa Sha - This is another type of massage that uses a Chinese ceramic spoon with massage oil to help relieve neck, shoulder and back pain. This technique may leave red or purple bruising and tenderness to the area treated that can last from 1-5 days. This is a normal response to the technique.
- 5. Electrical stimulation - This technique uses slight electrical impulses to stimulate already inserted needles in order to help un-block more stubborn blockages.
- 6. Expression of blood - A small lancet is inserted quickly into the skin and a few drops of blood are expressed from an acupoint. This is sometimes used to improve the circulation of a meridian.

I have been informed that I have the right to refuse any form of treatment. I understand the objective of the treatment and have been informed of the possible risks and consequences involved in the treatment. I have been informed that I have the opportunity to ask questions that pertain to the treatment. I also understand there is always a possibility of an unexpected complication and that no guarantee can be made with regard to the results of the treatment.
